AAMS, a program of California Lawyers for the Arts (CLA) has provided alternative dispute resolution (ADR) services to artists, arts organizations, performers, entertainers, and other members of the general public since 1980. ADR allows parties in legal and non-legal disputes to resolve their disagreements in an efficient, cost-effective, and confidential manner. While disputes resolved through AAMS are generally related to arts and entertainment, we are able to help resolve disputes of any kind. AAMS is funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts and the California Arts Council.

If you would like to attend, please submit your C.V. and a Certificate of Attendance to a 25-hour training program to Robyn Weinstein at robyn.weinstein@calawyersforthearts.org.

These services are made possible through major support from the Los Angeles County Department of Community and Senior Services through the California Dispute Resolution Programs Act.
