

You are invited to the

California Art for Justice Forum

Addressing mass incarceration and criminal justice reform through the arts

Presented by California Lawyers for the Arts ~
California State University, Sacramento ~ and the William James Association

Tuesday, October 16, 2018 9:00 AM – 5:30 PM

at the CSUS Alumni Center
6000 College Town Drive, Sacramento, CA 95826

Panels of Experts and Facilitated Dialogues will address:
Prevention – Intervention – Rehabilitation - Re-entry with Returned Citizens and Attendees

Our dialogue is part of a national series taking place in six states and is funded by the Art For Justice Fund, Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, and the Quentin Hancock Fund.

Admission is free. Please register to reserve your spot and to help us plan our catering accordingly. If you reserve a spot but become unable to attend, please let us know so we may offer your spot to someone on the waiting list.

<https://www.calawyersforthearts.org/event-3068851/Registration>

For further questions please contact Jody Prunier at 916-441-7979 ext. 101 or at jody.prunier@calawyersforthearts.org.

Catered lunch and refreshments provided – live music and an exhibit of jail art & poetry